If the results are not the same, the SEB shall re-appreciate the ballots and review the VVPAT to determine the discrepancy. If there is still a discrepancy, the SEB shall call on the assigned technical support staff for technical assistance. The technical support staff shall report such incident to the Chairperson of the CLAV.

Once the discrepancy is resolved, perform the re-zero procedure, and shut down the ACM following the steps in the general instructions for ACM Operations.
